Mr. William Geary, Commissioner of Public Work
And Ms. Karen Hoak, Deputy Commssioner of Public Works:

The Town of Concord Board has been informed that the Village of Springville has notified your office of their intent to take ownership of Waverly Street, CR 121 after a complete reconstruction by Erie County.

The Concord Board support this change-over of street ownership for many reasons. The main reason being this street is located in the heart of the Village traveled by thousands of vehicles per day and connects the two commercial/business zones in our area.

The last mill and blacktop paving took place in 2014 and the street is in need of rehab.

The Village DPW complex is located on a side street off Waverly so year round maintenance would be a priority of Springville DPW.

The Concord Board requests engineering be proposed by the County to facilitate construction ASAP.
The Board approved this letter at our regular meeting on October 8, 2026 with votes as follows.

Supervisor Drozd - Aye
Council Person Drake – Aye
Council Person Zittle - Aye
Council Person Krzemien –Aye
Council Person Kassel - Aye

Respectfully,

Philip Drozd
Town of Concord, Supervisor
